

PREFERRED ADDRESS(ES) FOR OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE HOA

Pursuant to California Civil Code sections 4040 and 4041, owners may specify a preference for "official" communications from the HOA. This form is optional. Any form of notice to the HOA communicating a preference is acceptable, provided it is dated and in writing (either paper or email). The preference may be changed at any time.

"Official" communications are those required by statute to be sent to individual unit owners. For example, the annual mailing, notice of a dues increase, or owner discipline (rules violations and fines). Routine maintenance communications are typically handled by email. BOD election ballots are paper only and will continue to be mailed to the owner address of record.
